The Conference Services Office is looking for a Conference Service Clerk to manage the Post's Temporary-Quarters Assistance Allowance (TQSA) program for incoming and outgoing officers and to track the use of Conference Service use by internal and external Government Agencies. She/he also prepares and dispatches official delegations' accreditations and provides full administrative and logistical support for official US Visitors.

BASIC FUNCTIONS OF POSITION

Under the general supervision of the Chief of Conference Services (CS), the incumbent manages post's temporary lodging for inbound and outbound Mission employees and their families. The incumbent serves as primary CS liaison to contracted residence hotels for daily operations and billing. Also initiates and maintains contact with employees to help them to determine options for temporary lodging based upon family situation and individual preferences. Maintains contact with the Community Liaison Officer (CLO), the Financial Management Officer (FMO), Housing, and Procurement on issues related to the program and maintains applicable records. Maintains contact with employees to determine their customer satisfaction with the hotel service provider and resolves any problems that arise. Reconciles hotel invoices and ensures that the invoices are accurate. Maintains familiarity with post's TQSA policy and recommends revision as required.

Maintains an accurate spreadsheet detailing quarters status of each incoming and outgoing office.
Initiates Service Orders against Blanket Purchase Agreements with the residence hotels and requests Management approval for occupancies that will exceed prescribed time periods.
Works with the hotels that provide rental cars and with their automobile provider to ensure that proper numbers of automatic transmission cars are available for our customers.
Prepare and dispatch official U.S. Government delegations' accreditations. Familiarize control officers with the process of picking up the accreditations at the United Nations and maintain contacts at the United Nations to facilitate this process as required.
Maintains Conference Services Visitor and Conference Center support spreadsheet by weekly service counts and annual totals. Maintains the U.S. Mission Geneva Hotel list detailing hotel pricing, handicap access, RSO inspection status, cancellation policy, internet access, and other services and amenities available.
Has primary responsibility for compiling ICASS workload counts.
Serves as backup for other CS positions in the following order of priority: billing, hotel operations, airport related operations, and conference center operations.
Assists with VIP support as required.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

Applicants must address each required qualification listed below with specific information supporting each item. Failure to do so may result in a determination that the applicant is not qualified.

1. EDUCATION: Completion of secondary school required.
2. EXPERIENCE: Five years in general business with a focus on customer service or two years in the hotel industry.
3. LANGUAGE: Level IV in spoken/written English and French.
4. SKILLS AND ABILITIES: Should know how to drive a passenger car and small van. Must possess the tact and the discretion necessary to deal with high-ranking visitors and their mission and local counterparts. Must also be available to support VIP visits on weekends and evenings.
5. JOB KNOWLEDGE: Knowledge of Geneva and the surrounding area with regards to International Organizations, hotels, restaurants and conference facilities. Must have a general knowledge of the role of a foreign UN Permanent Mission, airport transportation, communications, hotels, protocol, immigration and customs procedures and tourism.
